No. 32

LOCAL BREVITIES.

R. H. Cameron is in Los Angeles. Crushed pineapple ice cream soda at Timerhoff's.

Read the new advertisement of Timerhoff, the druggist.

A first-class railway ticket to Chicago for sale cheap. Enquire at this office.

For Rent—Two or three furnished rooms for housekeeping. Apply to Mrs. M. Mayflower.

James R. Willard returned Thursday from a trip to Los Angeles. He expects to move to that city later in the year.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Mrs. C. M. Funston and children left yesterday for the ranch of S. S. Acker at Apache Maid, where they will spend the next ten days.

E. F. Greenlaw returned Thursday from Los Angeles. He says that city is full of people from Southern Arizona who are spending the summer there.

F. C. Roberts, C. H. Vary and C. A. Banta returned Saturday from a trip to the Grand Canyon and the Supai villages in Cataract Canyon. They had an enjoyable camping trip.

Owing to the absence of Harrison Conrad, manager of the Flagstaff baseball nine, the game of ball between the home nine and Winslow, set for Sunday, has been postponed until August 18th.

Services in the M. E. church to-morrow as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11; Junior League at 4 p. m.; Epworth League at 7 p. m., after which the regular monthly song service will follow in place of the evening sermon.

C. A. Banta, the Phoenix mail carrier, spent his vacation here, leaving for home Monday. He was delighted with Flagstaff, and wonders why so many people go to the coast for the summer when they can find so many cool and pleasant places in the San Francisco mountains.

Dr. J. A. Munk of Los Angeles, Cal., spent several days here this week. The doctor is an enthusiastic lover of Arizona, and he has a collection of Arizona books, pamphlets and periodicals which number nearly two thousand, and is adding to his collection every day. He has issued a catalogue of books which embraces thirteen hundred publication on Arizona. The doctor left Wednesday for Holbrook and from that place will go to the Moqui snake dance.

E. E. Ellinwood left Monday for Prescott, where he intends locating permanently. He has secured offices and will fit them up attractively. Mr. Ellinwood is one of Arizona's leading attorneys, and during his residence of ten years here he enjoyed a large and lucrative practice. He was always active in affairs leading to the progress of the town. He has been mayor of Flagstaff since April, 1900. In the departure of Mr. Ellinwood the community loses a citizen that it can ill afford to lose, and they trust he may be successful in his new home.

W. B. Strait of Phoenix is a visitor here.

Strawberry ice cream soda with crushed fruit at Timerhoff's.

The contract for the addition to the Presbyterian church has been let to J. C. Grim, whose bid for the work was most favorable.

Dr. J. C. Solomon left Thursday for Williams and the Grand Canyon. After visiting the latter place he will return to his home in Los Angeles.

Miss Lillie Beal, one of the grand officers of the Eastern Star, was a guest of the ladies of Winslow Chapter No. 3, Saturday and Sunday.—Winslow Mail.

Robt. Hennessey and wife, J. J. McMurtrey and wife, Mrs. G. P. Crabtree, Chas. Shehan and James and Joseph Dugan left Wednesday for the Grand Canyon.

Mutton is in great demand at present and fat sheep bring good prices. Yearling wethers bring $3.25 by the carload. There are a number of buyers here from California.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world-wide reputation for its cures. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by the Pioneer Drug Store.

Governor N. O. Murphy and son Paul and J. C. Adams of Phoenix were passengers on No. 2 Wednesday night, bound for Fort Apache on a hunting trip. They expect to be absent ten days.

William R. Poole and Miss Ona Twitty were married at Williams on Saturday, August 3, 1901, Rev. W. C. Geyer officiating. Mr. Poole is the gentlemanly and capable bookkeeper for Max Salzman and formerly occupied a similar position with Babbitt Brothers. The bride is a popular and fascinating young lady of Williams.

T. J. Ross and wife of Jerome, spent a couple of days here this week. They are camping on Oak creek and could not resist a visit to their former home. Mr. Ross says the strike at the Jerome mines occurred Saturday, and that evening a thousand miners swarmed the streets of that place. Although considerable excitement prevailed there was no disorder among the strikers. Mr. Ross and wife returned to Oak creek Thursday.

Last Saturday afternoon as J. A. Vail, daughter Ella and son James were leaving his ranch, eight miles south of town, his spirited team ran away. Mr. Vail struck one of the horses with the whip, and the horse pulled ahead, causing the line to catch in the saddle ring, and Mr. Vail lost control of the team. They struck into a faster gait than Mr. Vail cared to ride, and calling to the children to jump from the buggy, he sprang out, followed by the boy. The little girl remained with the buggy until it was overturned and parted from the horses, escaping unhurt. Mr. Vail was shaken up and his ankle sprained in his hasty exit. The little boy received a bad cut and a serious bruise on the head.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

Try one of Timerhoff's grape juices. They are delicious.

The Entre Nous Club gave a dance at the Bank Hotel Hall last night.

Babbitt Brothers shipped four carloads of cattle to Los Angeles yesterday.

J. D. Walter, the attorney, took his departure Monday for Kingman where he expects to open a law office.

Mrs. H. H. Watkins of Kingman and niece, Miss Florence Hyde of San Jose, Cal., are guests of T. E. Pollock.

Mrs. C. W. Davis, who has been spending several weeks at Bellemont, returned to her eastern home Thursday.

The millinery store of Miss Wynne has been made attractive by paint on the outside and paper and paint in the interior.

Dr. S. W. Hart, the osteopathic physician, has acquired an extensive practice in Winslow and now makes weekly trips to that place.

Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

An employe of the Arizona Lumber & Timber Company named Harroll accidentally fell into the conveyor, which carries the waste from the mill to the big burner, Thursday, and broke two of his ribs.

Mrs. J. C. Milligan and daughter, Miss Mabel, Mrs. R. B. Todd, Mrs. Roberts, Messrs. Lauros Milligan, W. Kerr, C. Jermassen and B. F. Alsop left Tuesday on a ten days' camping trip to the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

They have a wonderful doctor in Safford. One afternoon about a month ago, he took a thirty-two pound tumor from a fifty-seven pound girl and had twenty eight pounds of girl left. He may be a fine doctor, but he is a poor mathematician.—Globe Times.

Those desiring to take the McCormick Gold Cure treatment for alcoholism should make arrangements at once, as I will remain in Flagstaff only a short time. Those wishing to take the famous treatment should not miss this opportunity. Of the large number of patients treated in Arizona in the past two years there has not been a single relapse. Remember, no cure, no pay. R. Edmonson.

J. D. Newman, the sheepraiser, was here yesterday from Maine. He says that lightning killed 232 head of sheep on last Friday afternoon, as reported in last week's SUN. The sheep were huddled under a big pine tree, and the flash of lightning, which struck the tree, apparently came from a clear sky, only a few clouds appearing at the time. Of the band of sheep under the tree but two escaped injury.

Miss Anna Miller has resigned her position as teacher in the Flagstaff public schools. Miss Miller is an efficient teacher and during the three years of her connection with the Flagstaff schools gave excellent satisfaction. The school board has employed Miss Jessica Fraser of Phoenix, a graduate of the Tempe Normal, to fill the vacancy. Miss Fraser is teaching in the Summit district and is a capable teacher.

F. H. Waite and wife of Williams were visitors here Thursday.

Mrs. M. E. Sargeant of Phoenix is registered at the Weatherford.

G. B. Richmond and wife of Phoenix are registered at the Commercial.

Campbell & Francis sold eight carloads of sheep to a California buyer this week.

Harrison Conrad of this place, Carl Graf and W. B. Strait are visiting the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Dr. E. H. Cassels and wife of Safford, Arizona, are in town and will remain several weeks. They spent several months here a year ago.

Frank Owenby is in from the Oak Creek range. He reports every water hole on the range filled. This, with abundance of grass, will make the year a good one for the cattlemen.

J. T. Dennis and son, who have been spending the past month here, left for Phoenix yesterday. Mr. Dennis expects to spend next summer here and will bring a party of Phoenix people with him.

E. R. Bayless has sold his barber shop to W. D. Cramer, a recent arrival from Wyoming. Mr. Bayless disposed of his business on account of ill-health, and spend some time at the Finnie Springs and then go to Agua Caliente to spend the winter.

Republicans everywhere subscribe for the National Criterion, an up-to-date monthly magazine devoted to political work in every state and territory in the United States. One dollar per year. Address National Criterion, P. O. box 51, Nogales, Arizona.

G. H. Coffin received a letter Tuesday from E. S. Clark, who with his family is visiting San Francisco, saying that his son Neal had been suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis, that an operation had been performed, and the patient was rapidly improving.

Gus Reamer, the jolly sheep man, while on his way from town Tuesday, fell from a wagon striking his head on a rock. Gus was pretty badly hurt. J. B. Jones and W. T. Harris went out to his camp Wednesday and brought him to town, where good care and accommodations can be given him. Gus has a host of friends who will see to it that he does not suffer.—Williams News.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Seamans were greeted with a large audience at their concert last Wednesday evening. The assembly hall of the public school was filled. High expectations regarding Mr. Seamans' singing had been raised by favorable notice of his work in other places. It is safe to say that the large audience Wednesday evening was not disappointed. Several of his numbers were specially well adapted to his voice, notably "The Happiest Land," "The King of the Winds" and "The Bandelero," for each of which he received a hearty encore. By special request Mr. Seamans sang "The Holy City." Mrs. Seamans' work as pianist was very satisfactory.
